TANDBERG Selects Pearson VUE for Certification Delivery

Bloomington, Minn., October, 15, 2009 – Pearson VUE, the electronic certification and licensure testing business of Pearson, announced today that TANDBERG has signed a multi-year contract with Pearson VUE for computer-based test delivery of its certification exams. TANDBERG is a global leader in visual communications, providing a broad range of video conferencing and telepresence products and services. TANDBERG examinations will be available throughout the worldwide Pearson VUE® Authorized Test Center network.

“We were looking for a test development and delivery partner to help us launch our new certification program for our partners and customers,” said Patricia Stang Ausetz, Vice President of Learning and Development for TANDBERG University. “Pearson VUE’s reputation as the leader in computer-based testing and extensive expertise with IT certifications will undoubtedly prove to be a winning combination in the development and growth of our certification program.”

“We are excited to be the exclusive testing partner for TANDBERG,” said Robert Whelan, president and chief executive officer, Pearson VUE. “TANDBERG video solutions can be found in over 90 countries, and the company is undergoing tremendous growth. Our Pearson VUE Authorized Test Center network will help TANDBERG achieve the reach they are looking for with their new certification program, while ensuring a high level of security.”
